SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Paul Willott, Sheriff: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant, by Mary Elizabeth Willott, as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons, (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover a divorce from the bonds of matrimony existing between you and plaintiff, and for the custody of your and her minor children, viz: Albert E., aged 13; Mary T., 10; Robert, 9; Ann, 7, and George 3 years; on grounds alleged of your willful desertion of her one year; of your habitual gross drunkenness contracted since marriage with her, incapacitating you from contributing your share to the support of her and your family, extreme cruelty on your part to her, and your neglect to provide the common necessities for her and your family, where such neglect was not the result of poverty on your part which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry, for one year and more; that you are harsh and of evil manners, and example to your children, unfit to have custody of your children, and she is fit and proper to be their custodian; that you and she were married the 13th day of March, 1874, and that she has resided six months and more before the commencement of this suit in Washoe county, State of Nevada all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said court will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 6th day of July, 1888.

July 23-88

LEVI P. MORTON,
OF NEW YORK.

"DOUBTFUL" STATES.

The Republicans receiving good
Reports from All Directions.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—A large number of Congressmen here have taken advantage of the lull in matters at the Capitol during the wait for the Senate tariff bill and have made runs home to look over the field and get some idea of how things will go in the Fall. The reports which are brought back are of a decidedly encouraging nature for the Republicans.

Chairman Brice has from time to time been calling into conference Democratic members and Senators in order to learn where money can be expended to the most advantage.

THE OUTLOOK IN CONNECTICUT.
The reports brought back from Connecticut are very bright for the Republicans. Congressman Vance has very little hope of the Democrats carrying the State, and still less hopes of being re-elected.

HARRISON STRONG IN INDIANA.
"All this talk," said an Indiana man last night, "about the Republican ticket in my State being a weak one is nonsense. The ticket is not only strong, but it is one that the Democrats can only hope to defeat by the hardest work. Congressman Hovey will carry almost every soldier vote in the State, and in my opinion, is a much stronger man for the Republicans than Governor Porter. Harrison is not so strong with the soldier element in his State as Hovey."

MINNESOTA SOLIDLY REPUBLICAN.
The Chairman of the Minnesota Democratic Committee has written a letter in which he says that the Democrats must not count upon carrying that State. He frankly admits that a majority of the voters of the State are in favor of protection and the party that represents it.

JERSEY SWINGING INTO LINE.
Those in a position to know say that the outlook in New Jersey has materially brightened within the last few weeks. The defeat of Blaine at Chicago dampened the ardor of Republicans down there, and it was some time before they could be persuaded to go to work again. Things are all in shape now, however, and Hobart and Sewell both express a firmer tone, and the former, it is whispered, has but large sums that Harrison will carry the State. In no other State has the tariff question entered more largely into the result, not even excepting Connecticut. The fact cannot be denied, even by the Democrats, that New Jersey, once a Democratic stronghold, has year by year been drifting away from the party of free trade.

IN VIRGINIA.
I have it from the most reliable source that, all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding, the Republican-Broadwater difficulties in Virginia will be readjusted within the ensuing week. Mahone has decided to yield some of the disputed points in order to secure harmony in the State. It is not to be supposed that Mr. Mahone has done this out of love for his political enemies in his own party in that State. That would not be Mahone. As a fighter, Mahone never knows what it is to give quarter, but the Republican National Committee has stepped in and delivered its mandate, and Mahone has had the good sense to obey. This was done by Chairman Quay, who uses a good opportunity to gain several Congressional districts and does not propose to allow petty jealousies to prevent it. This determination of Mr. Quay to fight hard for all close Congressional districts will be felt.

IN MARYLAND, TOO.
The Republicans are confident that with a stiff fight they can gain two and perhaps three Congressional districts. McGowan, in the Sixth, will undoubtedly win for them. In the Fifth things will be different, and the fight will be made on a different basis. With a strict party vote the Republicans would have no chance. They will therefore put all their efforts into splitting the Democratic vote on the tariff question, and it is likely they will succeed, as the sentiment among the Democrats there on this question is about equally divided.

Sheridan's efforts are estimated at $19,000.

THE CHINESE CURSE.

An Able Review by Senator Stewart—The Democratic Mask Stripped Off and the Record of Senator Harrison Vindicated.

After the conclusion of the speech of Senator Sherman on the fisheries treaty last Tuesday, Senator Stewart called up the bill for the exclusion of Chinese and to carry into effect the new treaty as amended by the Senate, the bill to take effect upon the ratification of the Senate amendments to the treaty by the Chinese and to carry into effect the new treaty as amended by the Senate, the bill to take effect upon the ratification of the Senate amendments to the treaty by the Chinese Government. Senator Morgan, of Alabama, spoke about three hours upon this bill, reading from the speeches of Senators Hoar, Dawes, Sherman, Hawley, and others, made years ago, for the purpose of showing that the Republican party was responsible for the presence of the Chinese in the United States. This speech was extremely partisan and unfair and was a manifest effort to manufacture political capital.

At the conclusion of Morgan's speech Senator Stewart took the floor and made a very spirited reply. He stated that in early times in California the labor of the Chinese was principally confined to working over old mining gulches that had previously been worked by the whites, and there being ample room in California in those days for everybody, the evil effects of the presence of Chinese was not appreciated. The Democratic party of California was not at the time opposed to the coming of Chinese, but on the contrary, many leading Democrats advocated appropriations of money by the State to import Chinese for the purpose of reclaiming the swamp lands of the State. This scheme was opposed by the Republicans and the free-soil Democrats. He denied that any Democrat had ever prepared and introduced a bill at any time previous to the present session of Congress looking to the exclusion of Chinese, except a bill introduced by Mr. Henley in 1884, and the bill prepared and introduced into the House by Mr. Morrow, which was afterward introduced in the Senate by Senator Fair, of Nevada.

Senator Stewart read from the journal of executive sessions of the Senate, which were recently made public, the proceedings which took place in the Senate on the ratification of the Burlingame treaty in 1868, from which it appeared that the treaty, as presented to the Senate, authorized the naturalization of the Chinese, but that it was amended on motion of Mr. Conness, a Republican Senator from California, so as to prohibit such naturalization. He called the attention of the Senate to a report of the proceedings of the grand banquet given to Burlingame and the Chinese Embassy on their return to San Francisco after the ratification of the treaty, in which the leading politicians of both parties participated, vying with each other in doing honor to the Embassy, and over which the then Democratic Governor of California, H. H. Haight, presided, and at which ex-Senator Hager, the present Collector of the Port of San Francisco, was a conspicuous and honored guest.

He then called attention to the great debate of July, 1870, in which the Republican Senate, after discussion, decided that no Chinese should be naturalized in the United States. He criticized the conduct of Senator Thurman on that occasion in attempting to stifle debate and secure the naturalization of Chinese by the Republican party against the apparent but not real opposition of the Democratic party. He showed that the bill under consideration at the time was a House bill amending the naturalization laws relating to white persons. By unanimous consent of the Senate it was agreed that a vote on this bill should be taken without further debate at 5:30 o'clock on July 2, 1870.

When the time arrived and no further debate was in order on the bill, Mr. Sumner, of Massachusetts, offered an amendment extending the right of naturalization to Africans and Chinese. Senator Stewart protested that Sumner's amendment was not germane to the bill or within the terms of the agreement, and that he would not allow a vote to be taken on it without debate. Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and Senator Thurman, a member of that committee, contended with Mr. Sumner and others that Senator Stewart was bound by the agreement to keep silent, while Senators Conkling and Edmunds, of the same committee, maintained that Senator Stewart had a right to be heard on the new proposition to extend naturalization to the Chinese. Senator Morton was of the same opinion. Great excitement prevailed.

Finally Senator Edmunds suggested to Senator Stewart to allow a vote to be taken, and if the amendment was adopted he would certainly be absolved from the agreement on a motion to reconsider, or after the bill was reported to the Senate. The vote was taken and the amendment adopted by 27 to 22, and the most interesting and remarkable debate followed that has occurred in the Senate for many years, continuing until about midnight of the 4th of July, when the motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendment was adopted was carried in favor of reconsideration by a vote of 27 to 14, twenty Republicans and seven Democrats voting for reconsideration and against the naturalization of Chinese.

Senator Stewart stated that Mr. Thurman voted every time against naturalizing Chinese and was opposed to extending the naturalization laws to either Africans or Chinese, but he complained of him more on that account than any other, and said that he would not have alluded to the matter if the Senator from Alabama had not read a speech of Senator Thurman against Chinese suffrage. He said it was very well to talk against Chinese suffrage, but the sincerity of Judge Thurman was impeached by his coalition with Sumner and Trumbull to choke off debate, the inevitable result of which would have been the adoption of Sumner's amendment, as shown by the vote first taken.

Senator Stewart then stated that after naturalization was denied the Chinese by the Republicans, it soon became evident that their immigration to this country was an unmitigated calamity, and Senators Sargent and Miller and other representatives of the Pacific Coast demanded the passage of laws for their exclusion. The Republican Administration and leading Republican Senators were opposed to any violation of the Burlingame treaty, and some argued that the coming of Chinese was not injurious to our country. He stated that a treaty was finally negotiated under President Hayes' Administration for the restriction of Chinese immigration, and a law was passed in pursuance thereof, mainly by the exertions of Senator Miller and other Republican representatives of the Pacific Coast, which he showed was evaded by the Chinese and whites engaged in the infamous business of smuggling Chinese laborers into the United States.

In 1880 a bill was prepared and introduced in the House by Morrow, which he said was the most restrictive measure ever suggested. The same bill was afterward introduced in the Senate by Fair, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, of which Senators Sherman, Edmunds, Frye, Harrison and others were members. It was reported to the Senate by Senator Sherman with the unanimous approval of the Committee, as stated by him in making the report, General Harrison being present, actively approving and removing objections, and on the passage of the bill there was not a dissenting voice of either Republicans or Democrats. The bill was reported to the House, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and never reported. Senator Stewart stated that if it had been passed by the House and approved by the President, no further treaty or law would have been necessary.

The Administration, thinking that this bill was in violation of the Hayes treaty, negotiated the treaty now pending. He stated that the treaty, as now amended by the Senate, supplemented by the bill will exclude the Chinese, but will be no better than the bill passed by the Senate during the last Congress. Senator Stewart aimed with much severity upon the attempt to drag the question into politics. He stated that while it was true that many Republicans in the East were slow to make a distinction between Chinese and other people, the Republicans of the Pacific Coast, in the two Houses, had been mainly instrumental in securing legislation and treaties excluding Chinese from naturalization and from immigration to the United States; that all parties now agreed that the Chinese must be excluded; that people in Congress and out of Congress were unanimous on this subject, for which he was very thankful; that it was not a party question, and that it had not been alluded to as a party question during the present Congress by anyone except the Senator from Alabama.

Senator Stewart appealed to the Democratic Senators present to bear witness that he had not alluded to the former record of any Democrat for the purpose of showing that it did not accord with the views such Democrats might now entertain; that he was satisfied with every Senator if his present position was right and patriotic, and it was no time now to make political capital out of the past on the Chinese question, when the opinion was unanimous in favor of their exclusion. He alluded to the successful effort of the Republicans of the Pacific Coast in excluding Chinese simply for the purpose of repelling the charge that the Republicans were responsible for the Chinese evil.

Ex-Mayor Henry L. Fish, of Rochester, N. Y., writes to a friend at Annapolis: "I am for Harrison, although, as the saying goes, I have been voting for Jackson all my life." Mr. Fish adds: "I want to vote for an honest statesman; a soldier who helped to save the Union; a man who has a standing at home; who will bring to the great office of President a clean record, a clean character; one who will maintain the dignity of the Nation at home and abroad."

A Democratic paper claims Iowa for Cleveland. The balance of the earth is now thrown in.

AN EMBARRASSING DELAY.

Cleveland's Overdue Letter of Acceptance Causing Some Anxiety.

WASHINGTON, August 12th.—The reasons for Cleveland's delay in writing his letter of acceptance of the Democratic nomination are exciting comment and speculation among Republican politicians. It is said that the President is awaiting the production of the Senate tariff substitute for the Mills bill before issuing his pronouncement. This can hardly be the fact, as Mr. Cleveland, it is believed, would not dare to criticize in a public message the relative merits of two respective measures of legislation neither of which have been passed upon by the co-ordinate branches of the National Legislature.

President Cleveland was notified of his nomination some time before the Republican Committee notified Mr. Harrison of his nomination, and the letter of the former will be published before that of the Republican nominee, unless Cleveland is afraid to state his grounds of acceptance in advance of those of his opponent. Four years ago Cleveland declared himself against a second term. This will not, however, prevent him from greedily announcing his desire to take another measure of fodder from the public crib.

SHERIDAN'S APPOINTMENT AS CADET.

His Success Due to the Quality Generally Known as "Snap."

St. Joseph, Mo., August 8th.—Dr. J. C. Ritchie, living at 1022 Mesami street, is the son of Thomas Ritchie, of Somerset, O., who, as Congressman from the Eleventh Ohio District, in 1848 appointed Gen. Phil Sheridan to a cadetship at West point. Dr. Ritchie today said: "Gen. Sheridan owed his appointment to a cadetship to the fact that my father considered him a boy abundantly supplied with what we call 'snap.' His father was poor and was a sub-contractor on the Maysville and Zanesville Turnpike. Phil clerked in a dry-goods store for a man named Henry Ditto. It was customary in those times for a Congressman to appoint some one for a cadetship whose family connections would help him politically. I have often heard my father tell of the pressure brought to bear on him to appoint the sons of several wealthy and prominent citizens. Phil wrote him a letter in his own scrawly handwriting. My father knew him personally and determined to make the appointment, and in order not to be influenced by the letters sent he carefully pigeonholed them. He watched the boy grow to manhood and before he died saw him in the rank of Major General. Some weeks ago I saw a statement in a local paper to the effect that Sheridan was appointed because he was an Irishman, and it would be odd to have an Irish cadet from a community in which there was so few of that nationality. I thought of writing a contradiction to the statement at the time, as it was absurd, but finally let it pass."

Mr. Emil Fecht, of the firm of John J. Bagley & Co., voted for Cleveland and Hendricks four years ago. He knows why he will not vote for Cleveland and Thurman this year. The Tribune is informed that twenty-and workingmen employed in a factory in this city who voted for Cleveland four years ago have come out for Harrison and Morton.—Detroit Tribune.

Editor Butler, of the Buffalo News, who initiated Mr. Cleveland in politics and has until recently been his warm supporter, says in his opinion Mr. Cleveland cannot be re-elected. The News, which ardently supported him in 1881, is against him now, and is doing valiant service for Harrison. Mr. Butler is of the opinion that New York will go Republican by an overwhelming majority.

Next Sunday afternoon 100 Democrats, every one of whom voted for Cleveland in 1884, will hold a meeting in the Second Ward of Elizabeth, N. J., for the purpose of organizing a Harrison and Morton Campaign Club. Many of them have been more or less prominent in politics.

Four prominent men who have heretofore been identified with the Democratic party became charter members of the Irish-American Republican Club organized in this city last night. They believe in protection, and come out squarely in support of the party championing the cause of American labor.—Lincoln (Neb.) Journal.

CHAS. CROCKER DEAD.

The Great Central Pacific Magnate Dead.

Charley Crocker, one of the original founders of the Central Pacific railroad, died yesterday. He has been ill for a year past. He was a good man in every sense of the word, and all who knew him in the early days will remember how kind he was to everybody connected with the road. The following dispatch from General Manager Towne, is self-explanatory:

SAN FRANCISCO, August 14.

J. H. Whited, and other Officers and Employees of the Company:

It becomes my painful duty to announce to the officers and to the employees of the Southern Pacific Company the death of the Second Vice President, Charles Crocker, which occurred at the Hotel Del Monte at 3:25 this P. M., and as a mark of respect to the memory of one of the founders of this great property, whose life has been devoted to its interests from the beginning, it is ordered that flags be placed at half-mast on the steamers and the principal buildings of the company until after the funeral shall have taken place, at the hour of which all the company's business not inconsistent with the public demands will be suspended.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Found Dead in Bed—Narcotic Poisoning.

A. O. Hubbard was found dead in his bed at Stroh's lodging house, on Commercial Row, day before yesterday. Coroner Brown held an inquest but the jury reported the cause of death unknown. A JOURNAL reporter who saw the body shortly after the inquest is satisfied the case was one of narcotic poisoning, from an overdose of an opiate intended as an astringent for diarrhoea. Evidently Hubbard did not understand the nature of the prescription he had been given by some person, and took too much, but probably not with suicidal intent. Deceased was a carpenter by trade. He was a member of Olive Branch Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., of Virginia. His funeral will take place this afternoon from Truckee Lodge Hall, under the auspices of members of the Odd Fellows' Lodges of Reno.

THE STATE FAIR.

The Silver State says the State Fair will commence at Reno September 17th, under the auspices of the State Agricultural Society, of which Theodore Winters is President. There will be six days' races, three ladies' tournaments, three grand stock parades and five bicycle races, besides agricultural, horticultural, mining and mechanical exhibits. The Society has purchased new grounds and built a new race track, which is said to be unsurpassed on the Coast, and $10,000 is offered in purses and premiums. Hubbard, which is one of the leading agricultural, stock raising and mining counties in the State, should have its products well represented at the Fair, and the ladies should not forget to have specimens of their handiwork on exhibition. The fare from Winnemucca to Reno and return will be one and one-third regular rates, and all articles and animals for exhibition will be transported free by the railroad company.

Woman's Relief.

"Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal," whether arising from physical, mental or moral sources. The promises and consolations of the gospel furnish abundant remedies for all spiritual or mental woes, and the Creator has stored, in the kingdom of Nature, remedies for every physical ailment. For ages these remedies were allowed to lie dormant, through the ignorance of mankind as to their uses, and for ages more but little attention was given to remedies for the peculiar afflictions of woman, who was looked upon and treated as a slave by lordly, and then brutal man, and her suffering regarded with beastly indifference. In later times, science and Christian philanthropy have come to her relief, devising remedies for her peculiar weaknesses, which have been combined in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy that cures the pains, aches, nausea, displacements, wasting and debilitating afflictions to which she is constantly exposed. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, unites wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

PERPETUAL MOTION.

The Plumas National says: Notwithstanding the positive and declared statement of scientists and mechanics throughout the world that no machine can be invented or made that will evolve perpetual motion, there have been in the ages past, and there now are, thousands of individuals who think differently, and who have been and are now at work on machines to produce such motion. For the past two or three years Daniel M. Bull, Esq., of Quincy, had "the idea in his head," and during the past few weeks has had a model made by one of our mechanics, with a view of demonstrating his idea and to prove to the scientist that such power could be produced. Bull's machine is a very simple affair, in fact consists of but one large revolving wheel, with arms and weights and a pulley. There is no complex or intricate machinery, no cogs, springs or clutches. No person who has examined the machine, and many have "figured" on it, can give any plausible reason why it will not work, but on the contrary, the mathematical calculations are all favorable to its being a success. As a matter of course, nearly all are skeptical concerning it, but one thing is certain, Mr. Bull has raised enough money on their faith in his machine to secure the building of a working model. He has filed a caveat on the invention, and left on Thursday morning last for the city of Washington on business connected with his invention. If the thing should happen to work "there's millions in it," and if it is a failure the loss will be small and the list of cranks will be enlarged. Success to Bull.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word malaria was comparatively unknown, to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which, in performing its functions, finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.
